

Be More Chill - I Love Play Rehearsal
Misc Soundtrack

So I know that there's another version out there for guitar and that this sounds better on the ukulele anyway, but as someone who sucks at playing the ukulele, I think this is a better version that sounds closer to the original backing when playing on guitar. Not all of the chords fit perfectly, and I'm working on fixing that, but it'll do for now. (I am also open to suggestions, of course.)
Enjoy! :)

That was really one of my best roles,

It's impossible to narrow down the many reasons why,
