CHORDS:

	EADGBE		EADGBE		EADGBE
A	(x0222x)	Eb*	(xx1202)	Dsus2	(xx0230)
A*	(x0423x)	Esus4	(022200)	Em	(022000)
E	(022100)	F#m	(244222)	G	(320033)
D	(xx0232)	Bm	(x24432)	G*	(320030)
Asus2	(x02200)	Bsus2	(x24422)

This song was played in the movie Reality Bites and it was the actor Ethan Hawke who sang it. I really like this song. But in the movie he just plays VERSE 1 and then the CHORUS/OUTRO. The first chorus, which was not played in the movie, has totally different chords than the CHORUS/OUTRO. Enjoy!

When you re playing the A chord, most of the time you should play it like this:

	A	A*	A	A*	A
E	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----
B	--2-2---2---3--3--3-2-3-2--2---2---3--3-2---	-----	-----	-----	-----
G	--2-2---2---2--2--2-2-2-2--2---2---2--2-2---	-----	-----	-----	-----
D	--2-2---2---4--4--4-2-4-2--2---2---4--4-2---	-----	-----	-----	-----
A	--0-0---0---0--0--0-0-0-0--0---0---0--0-0---	-----	-----	-----	-----

It s played like that in all the verses and the intro. The only comfortable way to play this is to use your index finger to play the A chord, then when you play the A* you can just hammer on the D and B strings with your middle and ring finger. Like Keith Richards does.

When you see something like D (sus2) it just means play the D chord but throw in the Dsus2 a bit. A lot of times he plays A and then throws in a Asus2 for instance.

OK, then you should be ready to play the song.
