In the Lillian Vernon catalogue

Slow part:

F#m

Oh baby, something s crossed my mind

Bm

And I was thinking you'd look so fine

Dm E
In a velvet dress with heels

A
And an ermine stole.

F#m
Oh, Luther darling, heaven knows

Bm
I've never put on women's clothes

Dm
Except for once
E A
My mother's camisole.

D
So you think only a woman

A
can truly love a man

D
Then you buy me the dress
I'll be more woman

A
than a man like you can stand.

E
I'll be your Venus on a chocolate shell

D
Yeah, rising on a marshmallow foam

A F# D
and if you got some sugar for me,

E A
Sugar Daddy, bring it home.

E A
It's our tradition to control,

E A
like Erich Honecker and Helmut Kohl,

F# B
From the Ukraine down to the Rhone, oh yeah

D E
Sweet home uber alles,

F#
I'm coming home

I'm coming home

D E A F#
Oh come on, Sugar Daddy, bring me home

D E A F#
Oh come on, Sugar Daddy, please, won't you bring me home

D E A
Oh come on, Sugar Daddy, bring me home
