[Todd 1]

F#

There s a hole in the world like a great black pit

F#

And the vermin of the world inhabit it

F#

And it s morals aren t worth what a pig could spit

F#

And it goes by the name of London...

[Todd 2]

F#

At the top of the pole sits the privileged few

F#

making mock of the vermin in the lower zoo

C#

turning beauty to filth and greed,

F#

i too have sailed the world and seen it s wonders

E

F#

For the cruelty of men is as wonderous as hell

E

G

F#

B

but there s no place like London

[Todd 3]

C G

There was a barber and his wife,

F C

And she was beautiful.

G

A foolish barber and his wife.

C

F

C#

She was his reason and his life,

F

G

And she was beautiful,

C

G

And she was virtuous,

And he was... naiiiiiive.

[Todd 4]

G

There was another man who saw

C

That she was beautiful.

C# D G
A pious vulture of the law,
F C#
Who, with a gesture of his claw,
G
Removed the barber from his plate,
D G
Then there was nothing but to wait,
C#
And she would fall, so soft, so young, so lost
F
And oh so beautiful!

[Anthony]

C# F
And the lady, sir,
C# D B
Did she succumb?

[Todd 4]

G D B
Oh, that was many years ago...
G D C#
I doubt if anyone would know...

[Todd 5]

C#
There s a hole in the world like a great black pit
C#
And it s filled with people who are filled with shit
C B
And the vermin of the world inhabit it...
