GHOST RIDERS IN THE SKY

Em G

1. An old cowpoke went riding out one hot and windy day,

Upon a ridge he rested as he went along his way,

Em

When all at once a mighty herd of red-eyed cows he saw,

Am En

A plowin through the ragged skies, and up the cloudy draw.

CHORUS:

Em G Em Am Em Yip-i-ya-a, Yip-i-ya-o, Ghost riders in the sky.

- 2. Their brands were still on fire and their hoofs were made of steel. Their horns were black and shiny and their hot breath he could feel. A bolt of fear went through him as they thundered through the sky. For as he saw the riders comin hard, he could hear their mournful cry.
- 3. Their face were gaunt, their eyes were blurred, Their shirts all soaked with sweat, They re riding hard to catch that herd, but they ain t caught him yet. They we got to ride forevermore on the range up in the sky, On horses snorting fire and as they ride, I hear them cry.
- 4. And as the riders loped on by he heard one call his name, If you want to save your soul from hell a ridin on the range, Then cowboy better change your ways or with us you will ride, Trying to catch the devil s herd across the endless skies.
