|D |G
I have heard your stories about your fast trains
|A |D
But now I ll tell you about one all the southern folks have seen
|G
She s the beauty of the southlands listen to that whistle scream
|A |D
It s that Pan American on her way to New Or-leans.

|G
She leaves Cincinnati headin down that Dixie line
|A
When she passes that Nashville tower you can hear that
|D
whistle whine
|G
Stick your head right out the window and feel that southern breeze
|A |D
your on that Pan American on her way to New Or-leans.

|G
If your ever in the south lands and want to see the scenes
|A |D
Just get your self a ticket on that Pan American Queen
|G
There s Louisville Nashville Montgomery the capital of Ala-bam
|A |D
You pass right through them all when your New Orleans bound.
