The Wark O The Weavers
David Shaw

[D] We re a met thegither here tae [G] sit an tae [D] crack,
Wi oor glesses in oor hands an oor [G] wark upon oor [A] back;
[D] For there s nae a trade amang them a can [G] either mend or [D] mak ,
Gin it gasna for the wark o the [A] weav- [D] -ers.

Chorus :
[D] If it wasna for the [A] weavers [G] what wad they [A] do?
[G] They wadna [D] hae claith [G] made oot o oor [A] woo ;
They [D] wadna hae a coat, [G] neither black nor [D] blue,
Gin it wasna for the wark o the [A] weav- [D] -ers.

There s some folk independent o ither tradesmen s wark,
For women need nae barber an dyker s need nae clerk;
But there s no ane o them but needs a coat an a sark,
No, they canna want the wark o the weavers.

There s smiths an there s wrights and there s mason chiels an a ,
There s doctors an there s meenisters an them that live by law,
An oor freens that bide oot ower the sea in Sooth America,
An they a need the wark o the weavers.

Oor sodgers an oor sailors, oh, we mak them a bauld,
For gin they hadna claes, faith, they couldna fecht for cauld;
The high an low, the rich an puir - a body young an auld,
They a need the wark o the weavers.

So the weavin is a trade that never can fail,
Sae lang s we need ae cloot tae haud anither hale,
Sae let us a be merry ower a bicker o guid ale.
An drink tae the health o the weavers.
