Em Bm
I sat within the valley green sat there with my true love

And my fond heart strove to choose between the old love and the new love

The old for her the new that made me think on Ireland dearly

While soft the wind blew down the glade and shook the golden barley

Twas hard for mournful words to frame to break the ties that bound us

Ah but harder still to bear the shame of foreign chains around us

And so I said the mountain glen I ll seek at morning early
Em G Bm Em Bm Em
And join the brave united men while soft winds shook the barley

When to my ears that fateful shot came out the wild wood ringing

The bullet pierced my true love s breast in life s young spring so early

And there upon my breast she died while soft winds shook the barley

I placed with branches soft and green about her gore-stained bosom
