

Adrian Hood - Brown Eyed Blues

Misc Unsigned Bands

This is a pretty straightforward song to play, i ve been hearing a lot of requests for song and in my opinion it sounds right (i think) so yeah, any questions just send them the.afro.guy@gmail.com.

Sweet! Enjoy serenading to yourself or to that special someone out there :)

Verses are the same, so just repeat.

VERSE 1:

Ab                          Bbm
Sheâ€™s got those eyes, those eyes
          Cm          Bm          Bbm
Thatâ€™ll see right through you
          Ab                          Bbm
When she leaves that night
          Cm                          Bm Bbm
I wanna leave, with her too
          Ab                          Bbm
And sheâ€™s on my mind
          Cm                          Bbm
Like all, all the time
          Ab                          Bbm
When we touch I go weak
          Cm                          Bbm
And I can hardly speak
          Cm                          Bbm
And I hope that she thinks about me
          Cm                          Db Dbm
Cos Iâ€™m always thinking of her

CHORUS:

Ab                          Bbm
I just wanna hold her hand, be her man
          Cm                          Bbm
I wanna know if sheâ€™d take a chance
          Ab
Cos I still have not revealed it
          Bbm
Cos I still get the feelin
          Cm                          Db                          Dbm
That lovin her is a game Iâ€™ll always lose
                                  Ab          Bbm          Cm          Bbm
I got the brown eyed blues

BRIDGE:

B                            Bbm        Ab
I donâ€™t wanna be with anybody else
B                            Bbm                    Ab
She makes me take a good look at myself
                                 Db
She brings out the best in me
                                 Dbm
She doesnâ€™t feel any less of me
                                 Ab        Fm
When I do the wrong things
                                 Bbm        Cm Db            Dbm
She loves me for me and I canâ€™t explain

I wanna know

CHORUS x2:        (= Play chords in 2nd playthrough)

Cos I still have not revealed it

That lovin her is a game Iâ€™ll always lose
                                 (Ab Bbm Cm Bm Bbm)
I got the brown eyed blues
