

Aida - I Know The Truth
Misc Unsigned Bands

Em            Am7                    D                    G
How have I come to this?    How did I slip and fall?
Cmaj7/E                                    D                                    | G
How did I throw half a lifetime away without any thought at all?
Em                    Am7                                    D                                    G
This should ve been my time.    It s over, it never began.
Cmaj7/E                                    D                                    | G                                    * * G/D | D
A7/C# |
I turned my eyes from so much for so long and I no longer can

| F/A    G7/B                    | C                    | D7/C                                    Bm
I try to blame it on    fortune.    Some kind of shift in the stars.
Em                                    Am7                                    D7                                    G
But I know the truth and it haunts me.    I learned it a little too late.
F/A                    G7/B                                    C                                    D7/C                                    | Bsus * B * |
Em
I know the truth and it mocks me.    I know the truth and it shocks            me.
Am                    D                                    C/G G    Am    G/B    C    D7
It's flown just a little too far.

Em                    Am7                                    D                                    G
Why do I want him still? Why, when there s nothing there?
Cmaj7/E                                    D                                    | G
Must I go on for the rest of my life, to pretend I don t care?
Em                                    Am7                                    D                                    G
This should've been my time.    It s over, it never began.
F/A                    G7/B                                    C                                    D7/C                                    | Bsus * B * | Em
I closed my eyes to so much for so long and I no longer can.

| F/A    G7/B                    | C                    | D7/C                                    Bm
I try to blame it on    fortune.    Some kind of twist in my fate.
Em                                    Am7                                    D7                                    G
But I know the truth and it haunts me.    I learned it a little too late.
F/A                    G7/B                                    C                                    D7/C                                    | Bsus * B * | Em
I know the truth and it mocks me.    I know the truth and it shocks            me.
Am                    D                                    C/G G    Am    G/B    C    D7
I learned it a little too late.