Am Em D
You see it seems my feelings have begun to change for you

Am Em G
And even though I may have felt it before well this feels so brand new

Am Em D
I can only hope and dream that you might feel it too

Em G D Am
I canâ€™t help myself it seems

Em G D Am
You are the man of my dreams
When Iâ€™m not with you I feel so lonely
I just want to feel your arms around me

D Em Am G
When I see your face I get so very shy
Sometimes I find it hard to look you in the eye
I guess Iâ€™m scared that you might see what I never knew
Without saying a word I might admit that I think Iâ€™m in love with you

 
I donâ€™t know if you even notice or even realise
I have no real interest in any other guys
How would you react if you knew the way I really feel
Would you be able to make any of my dreams become real

I canâ€™t help myself it seems
You are the man of my dreams
When Iâ€™m not with you I feel so lonely
I just want to feel your arms around me

When I see your face I get so very shy
Sometimes I find it hard to look you in the eye
I guess Iâ€™m scared that you might see what I never knew
Without saying a word I might admit that I think Iâ€™m in love with you
