Intro:

Build up | D, G x2

D, G x4

D G

You tell me you are unaware of what you do to me,

D G

The subtle things you do which make me hate you constantly,

D G

The little games you play to move me all around the board,

D G

The laughing and the joking no it isn't nice at all.

A Em

A song about a girl isn't the most original,

A Em

But neither was guitar yet it was quite the instrument,

A Em

The varied ways of plucking strings and tuning carefully,

A Em G A

The simple variables used to make a masterpiece.

D G

See just because you weren't unique some things were clear to me,

D G

You maybe getting tired but you never slept on me,

D G

You never tried to cause a rift or mock and laugh at me,

D G

You weren't anything more than perfect company.
