

C D Em
But sometimes she wants to just dump it out

G
Cause the grass ain't always greener on the other side

Am
Sometimes she gets a little bit lonely at night

C
She wants someone to hold

D C
Other than a bottle that's icy and cold, so icy and cold

C D
She blames it on a cowboy who let her get away

Em
I guess he didn't know how to treat her anyway

C D Em
And that's why she broke down and gave herself away

C D G
Yeah it's all because of him and Mike's Hard Lemonade

G Am C D
G Am C D Em

Em D
If only she knew that she could do better

G Am
Maybe she'd tear up all those love letters

C D
And stop thinking 'bout him every day

C D
But she's still blaming it on a cowboy who let her get away

Em
I guess he didn't know how to treat her anyway

C D Em
And that's why she broke down and gave herself away

C D C D
Yeah it's all because of him and Mike's Hard Lemonade

C D G
Yeah it's all because of him and Mike's Hard Lemonade
