

Big John Khatt And The Highland Blues Band - Darlin Corey
Misc Unsigned Bands

Darlin Corey:Big John Khat And The
Highland Blues Band.(1961.)
(The traditional is in Key of D..But I like BJK s version in A..so, please don t send me e-mails.)

#1.

A

Wake up, wake up, darling Corey..

G A

what makes you sleep so sound?

G

The revenue officers are coming..

A G A

they re gonna tear your still-house down.

#2.

A

Well, the first time I seen darling Corey..

G A

she was sitting by the banks of the sea.

G

Had a .44 strapped around her body..

A G A

and a five-string banjo on her knee.

#3.

A

Go away, go away, darling Corey.

G A

Quit hanging around my bed.

G

Your liquor has ruined my body..

A G A

pretty women gone to my head.

#4.

A

Dig a hole, dig a hole, in the meadow.

G A

Dig a hole in the cold damp ground.

G

Dig a hole, dig a hole, in the meadow..

A G A

we re gonna lay darling Corey down.

#5.

A

Can t you hear them bluebirds a-singing?

G A

Don t you hear that mournful sound?

A G

They re preaching darling Corey s funeral..

A G A

in some lonesome graveyard ground.

A sixties smash from Kraziekhat.