

Big John Khatt And The Highland Blues Band - Knee Deep In The Blues
Misc Unsigned Bands

Knee Deep In The Blues: Big John Khatt And The Highland Blues Band. Recorded live (with permission) in Marville, France in 1962.

INTRO: A# D# A# F A#

#1.

A# D#
Well, I ve just been thinkin things over.
A# F
How I have loved you for years.
A# D#
My life just don t seem worth livin ..
A# F A#
since you have left me in tears.

CHORUS:

D# A#
My skies have all turned to gray, now.
D# F
And I just walllllk, the soles offa my shoes.
A# D#
Since you ve been gone my heart s broken.
A# F A#
And I m just knee-deep in the blues.

(INTERLUDE:) A# D# A# F..A# D# A# F A#

#2.

A# D#
Well, I ve just been thinkin things over.
A# F
How I have loved you for years.
A# D#
My life just don t seem worth livin ..
A# F A#
since you have left me in tears.

CHORUS:#2:

D# A#
You ask me why I ve been cryin .
D# F
It s cause I ve loooost bout, all I can lose.
A# D#
Since you ve been gone I ve quit tryin .

A#

F

A#

And I m just knee-deep in the blues.

A fifties smash from Kraziekhat.