

Bob Luman - The Great Snowman
Misc Unsigned Bands

The Great Snowman:Bob Luman.
Top of the charts in 1961.

INTRO:(Spoken, ad lib.)

(Capo First fret for original.)

E

A few years ago there lived a lover

by the name of Jimmy Jones..

who really snowed the girls and left them cold,

and gained the title of The Great Snowman.

CHORUS:

E

A

E

I remember the day, when the snow melted away.

B B7

And the Great Snowman was wed.

E B

He said, yes, I do..

E A

and little Linda said it too,

E B E B

and the Great Snowman was we..eh..eh..ed.

E

we..eh..eh..wed.

#1.

E

Now, Jimmy Jones was the Snowman s name,

B

he put all the other local lovers to shame.

B7

He had good looks and a big fine car,

B E

And went around breaking all the girlie s hearts.

E7

Until one day the Great Snowman found,

A

Linda Lou, who started melting him down..

F#

He bought a ring and they set the day

B B7 B

and the Great Snowman started melting away.

CHORUS:

#2.

E

Now, the Great Snowman and his loving spouse,

B

live in a little sub-division house.

B7

They got six kids and his mother-in-law,

B

E

and expecting another kiddie in the Fall.

E7

His old Cadillac needs the paint retouched,

A

it s full of baby diapers and bottles and such,

F#

B

B7

B

the Great Snowman has outgrown..all his flashy Caddy clothes.

CHORUS:

A sixties smash from Kraziekhat.