

Bob Sinclar Feat Ben Onono - Rainbow Of Love
Misc Unsigned Bands

Heard this song today (yeah, I m a bit behind on popular music) and decided to try playing it, couldn t find any tabs or chords right away so did my best. I m not a pro guitar player, but seeing there is nothing else on here, here is my attempt. I figured the chrods myself, but found a youtube guy explaining the same chords I found later on:
<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=bJt6FuMzNx0>

Any comments and suggestions are welcome, especially for the last part I did a bit of guessing; my ears are not that great.

I find it a bit hard to explain the strumming pattern and I m not 100% sure, but this will give a basic idea of what I think sounds well. I think it s a quite common one tho. The guy in the vid above shows a slightly different one I think, but close anyway (at least, it sounds a bit more sad than what I play)

```
|D UDU U D U|
| X X |

The X s are palm muted strokes, only the first down stroke and the up strokes are open.

The Chords are D A E E during the whole song except for a breakdown after the second chorus. I am still trying to figure out the exact melody thing that s often thrown in during the song. I you got it, please post it. Please note, Did my best on timing the chords, often seems that the words start while still playing the previous chord. Listen well, think mostly the chords at the start of each sentence are a little out of position. Chorus first line seems to start on the last E of previous part, might get confused on the missing and moving E s here and there.

INTRO:

D                A                E
Oh-oh oh oh oh-ih Oho-oho
E                D    A                E E

Yeahiyeah whoo-woh, Chasing rainbows

D A
Your clear eye
E E
is the most beautiful thing
D A
like sunrise
E E
over the sea

D A
And when you smile with the day
E E
your eyes are the warmest thing
D A
you shed yesterdays skin
E
and a new day begins

CHORUS:

E D
So even when clear skies
A E E
seem so far away
D A
why go chasing rainbows
E E
rainbows from your door

D A
Cause even all the clear skies
E E
won t bring back yesterday
D A
so why go chasing rainbows
E E
rainbows from your door

---Just repeat chords---

Those who have seen seen the phoenix rise
say even from the pyre
the dawn can still be beautiful

The sound of your sunrise carries on the four winds
you shed yesterday s skin
and a new day begins

CHORUS

---There is a break in the music here, after that no clear chords, may just repeat as well D A E E---

D A E E

D
Sometimes we want to run away

A E E
from a place long gone

D
sometimes we want to throw away

A E E
what we need for what we want

D A E E
when it s time to move on

D A E E
move on...

E E

CHORUS
