Breakoriginals - Shes Too Good For Everyone Misc Unsigned Bands

Classic youtube song, was surprised that no one tabbed it out yet.
Oh well, three chord song commence-
She s too good F#or everyone - BreakOriginals
Tabbed by LostAuthority - Lyrics F#rom metal-head.org
                                                       В
Oh here she comes, it s miss too good for everyone , Hot since the seventh
        F# grade, mean as a snake in a knot
                                                      В
Not just some pretty girl, she s muy en fuego she knows it, she ought to,
she s told at least ten times a day
But let s look inside nothing but poison air blackened heart barely beats blue blood throughout her facade
Thinks she owns the world, treats people badly, someone should take a stand,
                                             E
Someone should tell her she s awful But not me, not me, Cause I think that I might have a chance...
Now I ll do things for you, just like the other guys.
                       F# Debase myself in the tragic hope that it will Make you desire me, through my obedience.
                        F#
What have you made me become and why don t I feel shame?
Yes I ll watch your dog, really no trouble at all
                          F#
Yes, I ll help you move, into another man s house,
Just remember I m always there in a pinch,
Shoulder to cry on or possibly kiss on the mouth.
                                                                F#
Let me buy you drinks, overpriced flavored martinis of various sizes, in so many hues.
Yeah, I ll hold your purse, I ll just wait here then while you talk to that guy

F# I guess I ll just look at my phone. Oh you re back again, Still looking hot as all hell and now you ve made a friend, F# Hello my rival young suitor, Good luck to you. See she s the devil and Satan s got perfectly toned abs and rocks a C-Cup. Listen men, someone has to destroy her beF#ore she grows stronger and decimates all of mankind. Someone hold her and shove a sharp stake through her heart, watch her turn to ash F# Then we can live life again, free from tyranny, hot girl oppression, we ll end this obsession with all that is wrong with the world. But not me, not me F# Though someone should tell her she s awful But not me, not me В

Cause I still think I might have a chance.
