Buffalo Tales - Amsterdam

its a really good song but no tabs existed of it so i experimented a bit and this is the closest i could come to the original song.

in the intro the guitarist of Buffalo Tales does a few hammer-ons and pull-offs on the D-chord. Hope i helped.

Intro: Em                      G6                      G6                      D

Em                      G6                      G6                      D

I am walking blindly somewhere, caught in the arms of a war

Em                      G6                      G6                      D

Im a sucker for the fanfare, chaos , i adore

Em                      G6                      G6                      D

And the river runs wild, like the veins through the heart of a city

Em                      G6                      G6                      D

And every killer knows that the red light girls are so pretty

C                      G6                      G6                      D

In Amsterdam, you can be such a beautifull mess

C                      G6                                      G6                                      D

In amsterdam if there is something that you gotta confess, do it come on and do it in Amsterdam

Em                      G6                      G6                      D

Ohhhh ahh ohhhhh oohhh ahh ohhhh

Em                    G6                    G6                    D
 The chance these words are broken, someone getting on his feet
Em                    G6                    G6                    D
 Its the language thats unspoken, down at a coffeshop on the beat
Em                    G6                    G6                    D
 Another table for two inside, yeah its wearing out our names
Em                    G6                    G6                    D
 And every Joker knows, where theres fire there is flames

C                    G6                    G6                    D
 In Amsterdam, you can be such a beautiful mess
C                    G6                    G6                    D
 In Amsterdam, if there is something that you gotta confess now do it. get right to it
C                    G6                    G6                    D
 If there is something that youll always regret, screw it , why do it
C                    G6                    G6                    D
 If there is something that you gotta confess now do it, just do it
C                    G6                    G6                    D
 If there is something that youll always regret. Screw it, why do it!!!
C                    G6                    G6                    D
 If there is something that you gotta confess now do it. Just do it In Amsterdam
Em                    G6                    G6                    D
 Ohhhhhh ahhhh oohhhhhh                    ohhhh ahhh ohhhhhh
