

Butterflies - Liz Golden
Misc Unsigned Bands

F/A G C G Am F
Who knew butterflies could last all night?
F/A G C G Am F
And who knew love would find its way back in my life?
F/A G C G Am F
Lives collided and my world shook
F/A G C G Am F
Fifteen seconds never felt so good

G C
Heart skips a beat
F
You re barely breathing
C
Now I m flying
G C
Up in the clouds
F
Can t bring me down
There s no denying
G C F C A
That these little butterflies have opened up the sky
G
And this heart of mine

Same throughout.

Well you make me feel so beautiful
With eyes that see right through my soul
A taste of heaven with just one kiss
I never imagined it could feel like this

Heart skips a beat
You re barely breathing
Now I m flying
Up in the clouds
Can t bring me down
There s no denying
That these little butterflies have opened up the sky
And this heart of mine

Kay, I couldn t really figure this part out, as soon as youtube stops being dumb, and I can listen to it, I ll figure it out. Sorry :/ But it probably has most of the same chords.

Up, up, and away
There s no need to stay
Down here

With you, it s so safe
Our cares fade away
And everything else just disappears

Heart skips a beat
You re barely breathing
Now I m flying
Up in the clouds
Can t bring me down
There s no denying
That these little butterflies have opened up the sky
And this heart...

Skips a beat
You re barely breathing
Now I m flying
Up in the clouds
Can t bring me down
There s no denying
That these little butterflies have opened up the sky
And this heart of mine

Cause who knew butterflies could last all night?
