

Chris Rene - Young Homie
Misc Unsigned Bands

Pretty easy chord progression.
Heard this song and fell in love with it.

INTRO - B F# G#m E (x2)

VERSE 1

B F#
Open up my mind with these spoken words,
G#m E
Let this music heal like an overture,
B F# G#m
She s the only one, one, one, yeah,
E
And so I roll with her, ooh,
B F#
That s how it s supposed to be,
G#m E
Living life with loved ones close to me,
B F#
Shh, ahh, this is the remedy,
G#m E
And I got the recipe, I don t need no Hennessy,
B F#
Yeah, it s been three years/two months now,
G#m E
Haven t had a drink and I m starting to see clear now,
B F#
I m putting all my fears down,
G#m
I can hear the cheers now,
E B
Seeing peace signs when I look around,

CHORUS

(B) F#
Hey, young homie what you tripping on
G#m E
Looking at life, like how did I get it wrong,
B F#
Life s too short, gotta live it long,
G#m E
To my brothers and sisters when will we get along,
B F# G#m
Hey, big homie what you tripping on,

What you really tripping on,

B F#

Life s too short, gotta live it long,

G#m E

To my brothers and sisters when will we get along,

VERSE 2

Give peace to the war in the streets,

Give peace to the evil that creeps, yeah,

I just ride, put my hand to the sky,

Live life like I m never gon die,

See we be fighting and fussing over nothing,

So much destruction, looking upwards,

Combusting like nothing, now listen,

It takes an education, to change your reputation,

From bad to good, you re even better now you re elevating,

They be singing, family singing, everybody s chilling,

Not gonna stop this, living on the feeling,

Man this is the real thing, tell me can you feel me,

Wait until they drop this, dancing on the ceiling,

FINAL CHORUS (strum one chord and let ring)

Hey, young homie what you tripping on

Looking at life, like how did I get it wrong,

Life s too short, gotta live it long,

To my brothers and sisters when will we get along,

Hey, big homie what you tripping on,

What you really tripping on,

Life s too short, gotta live it long,

To my brothers and sisters when will we get along.

ENJOY THE SONG, YOUNG HOMIES. :D
