Dallas Crane - Keep Your Head High Bella Mae Misc Unsigned Bands

So this is the chords for Keep Your Head High Bella Mae, by Dallas Crane. I m not sure if they re unsigned, but hey, they don t have their name in the database. Standard tuning, same deal. The strumming is easy to master if you know how it goes - the strums aren t all even, they go down, down, up, up, down, up. -- thats one barre. Beat 1 down & rest 2 down & up 3 rest & up 4 down & up The rhythm isn t very stop-start, more flowing you could say, so even where it don t stop the sound. If you like it, great :) i hope it helps you. Intro: G (4 barres) G / / Bm / / Em / / / / Am / / / / D / / / / / You and me are never gonna be right So don t wait up late for me tonight Αm This is one of those D We can t push outta the way G BmWe can fight our demons till we re blue in the hair But darling I won t be doing that Am Cause it s time now love To move right on in the grey Am So keep your head high Bella Mae
