

Danny Wallace - How To Start Your Own Country Anthem
Misc Unsigned Bands

Another gem of a song which I couldn't find any chords for online. It's pretty simple, but you should listen to the song first to work out the strumming.

Capo 2

A
Yesterday was dark and dingy,
B7
My temperament was rather wingy,
E D E7 A
Things had got me wonderin' why I lived in London anyway,
E7
My days were grey.
A
Now I welcome all and sundry,
B7
Everyone can join my country,
E
Listen if you're near them,
D E7 A
Maybe you can hear them say...

A7 D
You've got to teach the world to sing,
A
Danny Wallace is the king!
E A A7
For justice and politeness are the laws which he will bring,
D A
Where the order of the crown is to frown upon the frown.
B E7
We've done a constitution and we've even wrote it down...
D A
Although the nation may be small it's the nicest of them all,
E A A7
A land of opportunity where crime's against the law.
D A
Every subject do your part, with your hand upon your heart,
B E7 A D7
A Kingdom-come-democracy to start.

[Instrumental break/key change]

G / D / E / A7 /

D A
 Ev ryone is just the same,
Am G
 It doesn t matter who you name.
Dm7 Fmaj7 E7
 Anyone can be a dame, or sir, or lord (but not king)

A
 People gather round completely
B7
 Listen as I tell you sweetly
E
 All across our nation
D E7 A
 Join the recitation with me...

A7 D
 You ve got to teach the world to sing,
