Danny Wallace - How To Start Your Own Country Anthem Misc Unsigned Bands Another gem of a song which I couldn t find any chords for online. It s pretty simple, but you should listen to the song first to work out the strumming. Capo 2 А Yesterday was dark and dingy, в7 My temperament was rather wingy, E7  $\mathbf{E}$ Ά Things had got me wonderin why I lived in London anyway, E7 My days were grey. Α Now I welcome all and sundry, в7 Everyone can join my country, Listen if you re near them, D E7 Α Maybe you can hear them say... A7 р You ve got to teach the world to sing, Α Danny Wallace is the king! A7 E Α For justice and politeness are the laws which he will bring, Α Where the order of the crown is to frown upon the frown. R E7 We ve done a constitution and we ve even wrote it down... р Ά Although the nation may be small it s the nicest of them all, Α7 Α A land of opportunity where crime s against the law. Ev ry subject do your part, with your hand upon your heart, в E7 Α D7 A Kingdom-come-democracy to start. [Instrumental break/key change]  $\mathbf{G}$  /  $\mathbf{D}$  /  $\mathbf{A}$  /  $\mathbf{D}$  –  $\mathbf{D7}$  /

D Α Ev ryone is just the same, Am G It doesn t matter who you name. Dm7 Fmaj7 E7 Anyone can be a dame, or sir, or lord (but not king) Α People gather round completely в7 Listen as I tell you sweetly Е All across our nation E7 D Α Join the recitation with me...
