

Danny Wallace - How To Start Your Own Country Anthem
Misc Unsigned Bands

Another gem of a song which I couldn't find any chords for online. It's pretty simple, but you should listen to the song first to work out the strumming.

Capo 2

Bb

Yesterday was dark and dingy,

C7

My temperament was rather wingy,

F Eb F7 Bb

Things had got me wonderin' why I lived in London anyway,

F7

My days were grey.

Bb

Now I welcome all and sundry,

C7

Everyone can join my country,

F

Listen if you're near them,

Eb F7 Bb

Maybe you can hear them say...

Bb7

Eb

You've got to teach the world to sing,

Bb

Danny Wallace is the king!

F

Bb

Bb7

For justice and politeness are the laws which he will bring,

Eb

Bb

Where the order of the crown is to frown upon the frown.

C

F7

We've done a constitution and we've even wrote it down...

Eb

Bb

Although the nation may be small it's the nicest of them all,

F

Bb

Bb7

A land of opportunity where crime's against the law.

Eb

Bb

Every subject do your part, with your hand upon your heart,

C

F7

Bb

Eb7

A Kingdom-come-democracy to start.

 Anyone can be a dame, or sir, or lord (but not king)

Bb
 People gather round completely
C7
 Listen as I tell you sweetly
F
 All across our nation
Eb F7 Bb
 Join the recitation with me...
