

Eitre - William Taylor
Misc Unsigned Bands

D G A
William Taylor was a brisk young sailor &#8232;
D G A
Full of heart and full of play &#8232;
D G A
Till his mind he did uncover &#8232;
G F#m G
To a youthful lady gay

D G A
Four and twenty British sailors &#8232;
D G A
Met him on the king s highway &#8232;
D G A
As he went for to be married
G F#m G
Pressed he was and sent away

D G A
Folleri-de-dom, de- daerai diddero &#8232;
D F#m G
Folleri-de-dom, domme daerai dae
D G A
&#8232;Folleri-de-dom, de- daerai diddero &#8232;
D F#m G
Folleri-de-dom, domme daerai dae

D G A
Sailor s clothing she put on &#8232;
D G A
And she went on board as a man-o-war
D G A
&#8232;Her pretty little fingers long and slender &#8232;
G F#m G
They were smeared with pitch and tar

D G A
On the ship there was a battle &#8232;
D G A
She amongst the rest did fight &#8232;
D G A
The wind blew off her silver buttons &#8232;
G F#m G

