

Eitre - William Taylor
Misc Unsigned Bands

D G A
William Taylor was a brisk young sailor  
D G A
Full of heart and full of play  
D G A
Till his mind he did uncover  
G F#m G
To a youthful lady gay

D G A
Four and twenty British sailors  
D G A
Met him on the king s highway  
D G A
As he went for to be married
G F#m G
Pressed he was and sent away

D G A
Folleri-de-dom, de- daerai diddero  
D F#m G
Folleri-de-dom, domme daerai dae
D G A
 Folleri-de-dom, de- daerai diddero  
D F#m G
Folleri-de-dom, domme daerai dae

D G A
Sailor s clothing she put on  
D G A
And she went on board as a man-o-war
D G A
 Her pretty little fingers long and slender  
G F#m G
They were smeared with pitch and tar

D G A
On the ship there was a battle  
D G A
She amongst the rest did fight  
D G A
The wind blew off her silver buttons  
G F#m G

