

Eric Dill - Postcards From Hollywood
Misc Unsigned Bands

Intro: E

E B C#m A
I m all alone somewhere in Hollywood
B C#m A
The dream s alive and doing well
E B C#m A
It s a little skinny but it sure looks good
B C#m A
Sometimes your dreams are hard to sell

B C#m G#m A
And it s hard to breathe when you re out of air
B C#m A
It s hard to think when you just don t care
B C#m G#m A
The lights are bright in Hollywood
A B E
They shine out somewhere - not right here

Interlude: [E B C#m A] x2

[same chords]

I left my heart somewhere in Hollywood
And that s okay I won t need it anyway
We don t get too close out here it s understood
And I kinda like it I might stay

But it s hard to breathe when you re out of air
And it s hard to think when you just don t care
And the lights are bright in Hollywood
They shine out somewhere, but not right here

Interlude: [E B G#m A] x2

E B C#m A
I m sending postcards home from Hollywood
B C#m A
I ll be fine, yeah it s all good

B C#m G#m A
Cause you learn to breathe when you re out of air
B C#m A
And you learn to think when no one cares

B C#m G#m A

And the lights are bright in Hollywood

They shine out somewhere,

[E B G#m A]

Right here x2

[E B C#m A] x2
