Finnegans Lads - Whiskeyday Everyday Misc Unsigned Bands

A new artist from the Netherlands playing and writing Irish trads and ballads: www.finneganslads.nl

Whiskeyday, Everyday

Intro:

GDAD

D G D

When I was a wee lad of only twelve years old,

g D

I went to the  $\operatorname{caf} \tilde{A} \mathbb{O}$  and there I had a coke

G D A

And then there was an old bloke who said to me: Young lad

D A D

I ll give you a whiskey now and then you ll be a man

Chorus

D

Yesterday a whiskeyday,

Εm

Today a whiskeyday

D

And I think it will be whiskeyday

A ]

all my bloody life.

D G D

My life, it went on and I loved the drink too much,

G D

And all the people in the town knew me as such,

G D A

And then there was a fair young lady who said to me: my dear

D A D

Don t drink too much whiskey or you ll find me in tears

Chorus

D G D

This girl, she became my dearest and I love her with all my heart

G D

But the only thing she doesn t like is tearing me apart

מ ח ב

And then there came that old bloke who said to her: young lady

D A D

Do that boy a favour and drink your bloody whiskey

ח פ ס

We got old together happy and one night went to a bar

G D

There was a young boy who was playing his guitar

G D A

And I saw he was drinking porter so I said to him: young lad

D A I

I ll give you a whiskey now and then you ll be a man

Chorus 2x

Outro:

G D A D

GDAD