[verse 1]

I can hear the wind howling in your sky
Ill let the flowers dance in your garden
I can make the rocks dance on your earth
And i will make your waves dance on my sea

[verse 2]

I can make the streetlights shine on you
I ll be the one walking next to you
I ll be the one to always catch you where you fall
I ll be the one who gets you through it all

[chorus]

I am who you want me to be
You are who I want you to be
You make who I am
This is how it s supposed to be
Just you and me

[verse 3]

You can hear the wind howling in my sky
You ll let the flowers dance in my garden
You can make the rocks dance on my earth
And you will make my waves dance on your sea

[bridge]

If you leave my side
If loving you is just not right
You will always be on my mind
You will always be my right side
You will always be
You will always be

[chorus]
