That's what I've come to assume

(1st Verse Chords)

Time goes by, I'd say about a week

And I've been fine to think and speak

But, then I see you at the door

I feel my body hit the floor

Stuck here once again with no support

I try to move, but I fall short

I'm lucky that this sofa held me

Cause all my limbs have turned to jelly

(Repeat Bridge)

(Repeat Chorus x2)

(At the second repeat of the chorus)

Am

Or at least

Am

Bm C

D

That's what I've come to assume

Am

D

And the smell of your perfume

Am

Bm C

D

G5

It happens when you're in the room
