Finger picking

D

It started as a lack of faith,

G

D

grew ever stronger with every breath

G

this treasure we had built in our hearts,

D

reduced to nothing but an empty chest

G

I say that we share the blame,

D

knowing well that the fault was mine,

G

but I d rather live on empty words than to be the bigger person

Em

D

A

for the first time in my life

Em

D

for the first time in my life

D, G, D, G

D

We ve lost hope that everything will end up how I know we would like

G

D

and I ve lost touch with everything that used to help me through the night

G

D A

And I guess that s fine,

D

A

Yeah I guess that s fine.

E

I guess that s fine.

D

Yeah I guess that s fine.

(D)

Because stars won t cross

G

for every pair of desperate, naive kids

D

with false hope and an inch of a love

(D)

that does not exist

G

D Bm D A

well it kills me to say this but I was fading away

D Bm D A G

and these words are more concrete than anything

i ve come to know

finger picking

Em D G

so thank you sincerely for everything and i m sorry sincerely for everything i couldn t be.

D G D
