

Grieving For Grace - Still
Misc Unsigned Bands

Tabbed By: ddukki

This is my first tab, so please be gentle. I was listening to this song that was away on my HDD since 2007 so I thought I'd give playing it a go. Grieving for Grace have kind of weird tuning on their guitar, because it sounds like they have an open drone for their first string. Here's the best I could come up with in standard tuning.

Second Capo [Numbers and chord positions are all relative to the Capo]

Intro: [xxx40x]
B5: [x2440x]
G#m7: [42440x]
B5/F#: [22440x]
Bsus4/E: [02440x]

Verse 1:

Intro [xxx40x] G#m7
You've walked this road ten times before and now once more
B5/F# Bsus4/E
You wish the world would disappear but the face reappears
B5 G#m7
It must be strange not knowing when the knife cuts through the skin
B5/F# Bsus4/E
Or if your dreams were dreams at all or just the space left to crawl

Chorus:

B5 Bsus4/E
And I close my eyes
G#m7 B5/F# Bsus4/E
But you're still the one I recognize
B5 Bsus4/E
And through the maze of what is true
G#m7 B5/F# Bsus4/E
I've discovered that I still love you

Verse 2:

B5 G#m7
And now I lie awake to find someone else in your life
B5/F# Bsus4/E
But does he treat you like he should, or love you like I could?

Chorus

Bridge:

B5/F#

That I still love you

Bsus4/E G#m7 B5/F# B5

B5 B5/F#

And I re - fuse to let you go

Bsus4/E G#m7 B5/F# B5

B5 B5/F#

Those sparkling brown eyes still move me so

Bsus4/E G#m7 B5/F# B5

B5 B5/F#

So won't you give us one more try?

G#m7? B5/F# Bsus4/E

I know that we'll make it this time, this time, yeah

Chorus

Note: The bridge gets a little hectic, with almost a chord per word. Just listen to the and the rhythm should come naturally.

I would like to play this song correctly, so if anyone has any insight as to how this is played, or can point me to a video where it's played live, that'd be awesome!

Rock on!
