

Hello Gumption - Spinning As We Go
Misc Unsigned Bands

This, as you may know, is the catchy tune from the Excel gum commercial starring the Coffee Cup, Onion and Donut. I have been looking everywhere for the chords for months now eventually thought I d try a long-shot -- emailing the band themselves on MySpace. Well do you know, I got a reply from Brendan himself! In addition to being an amazing he s a really nice, down-to-earth guy! Must be because he s Canadian ;)

Anyways, enjoy, and hit them up on MySpace if you love this song as much as I do and let know how you feel :)
