

Jack Kelly - This Is What Perfection Looks Like

Misc Unsigned Bands

C F G
I donâ€™t know many things, I barely know how this song should start.
C F G
I know you donâ€™t understand leagues, but we are leagues apart.
C F G
I know Iâ€™m not the smartest man, Iâ€™m not even that smart.
C F G
But I know what I lack in brains, I make up in heart.

F open G open Am Em F
And I donâ€™t know why, you even try to give me the time of day.
And I donâ€™t know why, you even listen to the bullshit things I say.
And I donâ€™t know why you even try, or want me to stay.
But I know this is what perfection looks likes.

C C
Iâ€™m fine when I look at the skyline, I donâ€™t know where earth stops and heaven begins.
F G
And everywhere I go I feel like Iâ€™m being followed by the sweet sound of violins.
C C
And sometimes when I see the sunset, I get wondering if you can see.
F G
It from where you are, and I wonder if youâ€™re thinking about me.

F open G open Am Em F
And I donâ€™t know why, you even try to give me the time of day.
And I donâ€™t know why, you even listen to the bullshit things I say.
And I donâ€™t know why you even try, or want me to stay.
But I know this is what perfection looks likes.

For the F open and G open chords leave the high E open and play it and donâ€™t play the low E.
So like the F open would be:

E	0
B	1
G	2
D	3
A	3
E	x

and the G is just that but all moved up two frets. Thanks
