VERSE 1: (Piano part playing)

I fall flat on my face. The tears are falling from my eyes
I need Your love to heal this brokenness inside

Cause I know You're gonna pick me up and help me to understand how to live again
My life is so much better here with You

CHORUS:

Cause, You are the only one. You are the only one.
You are the only one for me
You are the only one. You are the only one.
You are the only one. The first, the last, forever

VERSE 2:

And You hear me every time I call out Your name.
You let me see that You will never ever change
And now I know a love that truly rescues me
You set me free because I believe

BRIDGE:

Where would I be if it wasn't for Your love. What else can I see, if I set my eyes above

It all comes down to You. To You
