A

I was peepin through the window one

Saturday night..

saw Charlie Brown holdin Lucille tight.

D

Over in the corner was Stagger Lee..

A

and Long Tall Sally was making whoopee.

Mary-Lou and Switchblade Sam..I knocked on the door and said, here I am.

A

Yeah, I slipped through the backdoor and gave it a slam..and out come Stagger Lee and old slick Sam.

Out through the window jumped Charlie Brown..

A

he s a-pickin em up and a-puttin em down.

A

The funniest sight I ever saw..I guess them cats thought I was the law.

#3.

A

Yeah, the girls started screamin and a-carryin on.

Don t be frightened, you ain t alone.

D

I said to myself, I m gonna have a-fun..

A

a house full of women and I m the only one..

and now them cats is clean out of sight..

A

a house full of women and a cold-cold night.

A

Well, Long Tall Sally was a-sittin on my knee..

wooo, daddy, you beat Stagger Lee.

D

Mary-Lou was a-playin around..she said, yes, oh, daddy, you beat Charlie Brown.

A

Lucille-gal was a-doin agree..she said come here, baby cause you beat all three.

#5.

A

Well, this went on all the night..I m a-tellin you they was a-treatin me right.

A

Then I heard someone knockin on the door..out stood Stagger Lee with a .44.

E

There at the window was a-Charlie Brown..

A

at the back door stood ol Switchblade Sam.

#6.

Well, I jacked a chair and I knocked out the light..

and everybody indoors was startin to fight.

D

I jumped out the window and I started to run..

A

I heard Charlie Brown say, give me that gun.

E

Ol Stagger Lee said, you cut my wife..

A

Switchblade Sam said, I dropped my knife.

OUTRO:

Well, listen here, fellow, let me give you some advice..

if you re out jukin on a Saturday night.

You better look out for a-Charlie Brown..

A

Stagger Lee and ol Switchblade Sam.

A fifties smash from Kraziekhat.
