WHO IN THE WORLD

Gm Bb (x2)

C Gm Bb F (x2)C Eb BbC C Gm Bb

When the kings and queens have fallen Into the night, who will stand to fight And when all the heroes go missing Cause they re tired, of reading through the lies Where do all the children s fantasies go When they find out what their reality is And when our guardian angels disappear Cause they re scared, who will be there

C Eb Вb  $\mathbf{C}$  (x2) C Gm

C Gm Bb F (x2)C Eb Bb F C Gm Bb F

When you feel the statues stop watching Cause they don t want to see what we ve become And the birds stop singing a beautiful song Cause their inspiration is gone, their inspiration is gone When the colors all fade to grey At least we ll be the same, maybe we ll look the same Then we ll forget about what love is

And be consumed in our hate

Eb Bb C Eb Bb C Bb/D Eb Bb C Eb Am Bb F

Who in the world are we waiting for Someone to help us restore our faith in each other Is there someone out there listening to our cries in the night Someone strong enough to put out this fight

C Bb/D Eb F (x2)

C Bb/D Eb F (x10)

Give your love to someone and never ask it back Could you be like that, could we live like that Take a moment to breathe in your lifestyle Could you breathe like that, could we breathe like that Give your moment to someone who s never shined Could you hide like that, could you lie like that Give your heart to someone who s been empty inside Inside
