I Would be an Orchardist

Capo III

C F G C

C F
Long ere the rooster crows from out of bed I rise
G C
wash and comb my tousled hair and don my old disguise, Am
creep into my lover s room and kiss her head goodbye,
G C
hit the road to make my living, live myself a lie.

C F
While the sun is rising I toil and I slave,
G C
earn enough to pay my debts and all the rest I save.
Am
Life is not luxurious on such a meager wage,
G C
but I ve got a dream to calm my nerves and all my fears assuage.

F C
I d like to be in a field of green
D D7 G G7
surrounded by a livelihood of trees.

F Am
I wanna go where apples grow
F G C
with prairie grass and clover down below.

instrumental C F G C

C F
Long ere the rooster crows from out of bed I rise,
G C
fix myself a breakfast, tie my boots, and go outside, Am
check up on the ciderhouse and tend my growing trees,
G C
clean out the old chicken coop and then do as I please.

F C

C F
We share a pot of coffee as we watch the rising sun,
a full day s work ahead, but it s a full day s worth of fun.

Am
Life is so luxur ious when you re working towards a dream,
G C
and working comes so naturally when all your time is free.
