When you feel like you re lost at sea

And there s a million dangers lurking in the deep
Just keep swimming

And you feel that you ve had enough
Everything is going wrong
And there s nothing left to do but give up
Just keep swimming

Close your eyes, take a breath
And keep reaching out ahead
You ll never know, unless you try
So give it all you ve got inside
This world is gonna keep on spinning
And you ve just gotta keep on kicking
Just keep swimming

They will tell you that you should quit
It s not worth it, you ll never win
