CHORUS:
```
C                            G7               C
Little red rented rowboat..little red rented rowboat.
C                    F           C          G7
Not much better than no boat..but at least it ll go
        C         G7      C         G7        C
when I row, row, row..at least it ll go when I row.

#1.
```
C                            G7               C
I saw two pretty girls sunbathing on a pier.
G7                       C
They wore bikinis way down to here.
F       C         G7                    C
I waved, they waved..they said they d like a ride.
      F         G7       C
So, I helped them climb inside..to share my..
```

CHORUS:
```
C                            G7               C
Little red rented rowboat..little red rented rowboat.
C                    F           C          G7
Not much better than no boat..but at least it ll go
when I row, row, row..at least it ll go when I row.
```

 C#
(Row, row, row, row, row.)
```

#2.
```
C#
Along came a sailboat big enough for two.
   G#7                      C#
The skipper saw the girls..I knew what he would do.
   F#        C#            G#7               C#
He waved, and they waved..then he helped them inside..
F#        G#7       C#
just one girl to ride..there in my..
```

CHORUS:
```
C#                           G#7              C#
Little red rented rowboat..little red rented rowboat.
C#                   F#              C#          G#7
```

```
Not much better than no boat..but at least it ll go
        C#          G#7      C#          G#7        C#

#3.
D                                          A
Hotrod motorboat roared up behind..the girl took a look,
     D
and I could read her mind.
G             D            A                D
She waved, and he waved..he helped her climb inside..
        G        A        D
leaving me with wounded pride.
(Row, row, row, row, row.)

#4.
D#                             A#
One hour later I saw them again..motorboat out of gas,
D#
sailboat out of wind.
   G#                 D#              A#                D#
The girls waved, and I waved..and then I passed them by,
        G#         A#      D#
with my nose held way up high..me and my..

CHORUS:
D#                            A#                  D#
Little red rented rowboat..little red rented rowboat.
D#                    G#             D#          A#
Not much better than no boat..but at least it ll go
        D#        A#     D#         A#         D#
when I row, row, row..at least it ll go when I row.

OUTRO:
Row, row, row little boat...row, row, row little boat...(Fade.)

A sixties smash from Kraziekhat.
