and lonely is what you make it, what you make it, what you make it, and i am sure to make it, yes i am sure to make it, but a smile ain t a smile if you fake it, if you fake it, so pick your risk and take it, so pick your risk and take it.

and in september summer sits like autumn leaves upon the water, like leaves upon the water, like leaves upon the water, but in december breath is short, eyes are cold, and hearts are harder, but ice is still just water, but ice is still just water.

and on the third in the rain, in the rain, we were swayin , oh swayin swayin swayin , oh swayin swayin swayin , and there we heard what the rain, what the rain was really sayin :
that they were on their way in, that they were on their way in.

And they were on their way in, and they were on their way in
and the rain is warm in heaven, the rain is warm in heaven, and they were on their way in, and they were on their way in.
