

Keith Shiner - On Your Own
Misc Unsigned Bands

A good buddy of mine wrote this tune. I think the guitar part is very cool.
You can the tune from iTunes or CDbaby.com

Cheers and have fun!

Intro played throughout verses

I was at your funeral just the other day.
All choked with tears, we knew youd gone away.
And up at the front I heard the man say
That the stars shine the brightest when the daylight goes away

Intro

You left us puzzled inside my friend
I respect your choice for the misery to end
Its not easy to understand your pain
But now your tears of anguish are falling down like rain

CHORUS:

A	B	E	A
Now we sit around, try to figure out, what else
A	B	E	A
What else we might have done to keep you around
A	B	E	A
Telephone call, note in the mail
F#m	B	E	Emaj9
Finally realized that you were on your own
E	Emaj9	E11	(strummed like the intro)
You were on your own.

I dont believe in the after life
But if by some chance its true
I know you will be there helping
Helping those right in front of you

And is it selfish for me to say
That I really miss your smile
Know where now it was hiding
Hiding your darkness all the while

Chorus

Some days I just dont wanna be
A student of life after all
Some of lifes lessons we are forced to learn
I could really do without them all

Now it time for me to reassure through this song
To all of us who love you
The silver lining of this cloud
Will win out, will win out, will win out
