A|----x-----3-----|
E|----1-----|

Lyrics + Chords:

      F              C  Am7
I was driving into the sunset
      F              C  Am7
Trying to find where it begins
      F              C      Am7              G              C
I saw you in my rear view mirror and I stopped to let you in
      F              C      Am7
You looked through me with those big blue eyes
      F              C      Am7
Reckless and without fear
      F              C      Am7              G              C
You asked me where I was going I said anywhere but here

      G              Dm      C      Am7
We were carving our names into the backseat passenger side
      G              Dm      C      Am7
The radio kept us from sleeping
      G              Dm      C      Am7
With just one look at you I left it all behind
      Am7      Em      Dm
I left everything, everything but you and my beat up six string

      F              C      Am7
With your feet up there on the dashboard
      F              C      Am7
I started to think about fate

F C Am7
 Cause a porcelain doll on the side of the road
G C
 looks a little bit out of place
F C Am7
 As we counted lines on the highway
F C Am7
 We watched the road pass in the lights
F C Am7 G C
 With nowhere to go and without a home at the mercy of the night

G Dm C Am7
 We were carving our names into the backseat passenger side
G Dm C Am7
 The radio kept us from sleeping
G Dm C Am7
 With just one look at you I left it all behind
Am7 Em Dm
 I left everything, everything but you and my beat up six string

G Bb
 With our fingers on the map
Dm C Bb C(bar chord)
 Looking back on what seemed so far behind
G Bb
 How was that for spontaneous?
Dm C Bb C (bar chord)
 Was it any less than what you were hoping you would find?

G
F C Am7 x3
G C

F C Am7
 You looked so cool with your shades on
F C Am7
 And wind blowing through your hair
F C Am7 G C
 You told me to be reassured you would follow me anywhere

G Dm C Am7
 We were carving our names into the backseat passenger side
G Dm C Am7
 The radio kept us from sleeping
G Dm C Am7
 With just one look at you I left it all behind
Am7 Em Dm
 I left everything, everything but you and my beat up six string
