(voice alternates low/high between lines)

When we were kids we would follow the sun till it burned out.

C F G
Rainbows would go on forever, of this there was no doubt.

C F G
We had no reasoning but we had our ways of loving life

C F G
We would pretend in my backyard that we were husband and wife.

C F G
There was no such thing as facebook; twitter or tumblr the same.

Am Em F G
There were no iPhones or IGNS, because we all had our real names

Am Em F G
But then technology took it s course, and we are soley to blame

F G C Am
The fact that the youth feels no remorse, that our world is starting to change

F G C Am
But if we can find our humble start, then things will go back to good.

F G C Am
Have you thought about your past? Well, i think ya should.

F G C Am
Cuz we all have our childhood, so i think its time to do

F G C Am
Cuz every bit of that childhood, is damn well a right to you

F G C Am
Strum twice

C F Gx2

Now here we are on the floor, it seems we are teens now

C F G
The feeling of freedom it looks to me that it is weighed down,

C F G
We have new friends and new passions, new forms of expression.

C F G
It s sad that our character s summed up by form of possessions.

C F G
But if we look past all the bullshit, then friends are easy to make.

Am Em F G
These years should be the best of your life; because your future s at stake

Am Em F G
Now i d make this song about birth to death, but i wouldnt know how.

F G C Am
You see that im only 15 myself, so i cannot allow.

F G C Am
But you can find out on your own, and i suggest that you do.
