

Lauren Oconnell - Tangled Up Kites
Misc Unsigned Bands

TANGLED UP KITES

Capo 10th fret

C C/B* C C/B C G

C

My fists have been grasping real tight

C/B

On ribbons that hang onto tangled up kites

F C

For the notes that will fill

F C

Up the saccharine still

C G

Of the air here tonight.

C

But it feels like there s little to show

C/B

For time that you ve spent on things no one can know

F C

How the lines in your hands

F C

Read like maps in the sand

C G

With nowhere specific to go.

F C/E C

If you let it, it all goes away

C/B G

Hey-y-y

F C/E C

If you let it, it all goes away

It s the strangest feeling at parts

When things are okay right when the rain starts

Like the dripping of stars

On the roof of my car

In the minutes just after dark.

But sometimes I think I m losing sight

Of whatever it was that made everything right

But I lack violins

To make sorrows of sins

So I guess that it must be alright.

If you let it, it all goes away

Hey-y-y

If you let it, it all goes away

(Improvised break that would be difficult to notate)

F C/E C

If you let it, it all goes away

C/B G

Hey-y-y

F C/E C

If you let it, it all goes away.

*Not actually a C/B, but it s something kind of close and the actual technical name is something crazy so I m just gonna call it C/B. Regardless, I m playing this:

o 1
o
o
2
x

*C/E:

o 1
o
2
x x
