WHAT BREAKS (AND WHAT DOESN T)

C

Am

There s a scar on my lip

C

One that you can t help but kiss

Am

From when I was a kid

G

I got it like this

F C F C

See I was three years old, maybe younger still

G

I crashed headlong into a window sill

Am C

And was surprised when I broke instead of it

G

That s the scar that s on my lip

C

That s what you re kissing when we kiss.

F C

When you leave

F C G

You ll be fine.

C

Am

When it gets real late

C

So late that it s not late anymore

Am

And I m alone, awake

G

Just creaking with the floors

F C F C

I can ask the sun to let me sleep

G

Don t know what stake it holds in the hours I keep

Am C

Well I ll push it down, but these burning hands won t seem to do

G

All my efforts fall right through
C
The morning makes me think of you.

F C
When you leave
F C G
You...
Am
Will be fine
F C G
You...
C
Will be fine.

C

Am
But if we re talking about distractions
F
Everything is a distraction
C
Except when your blood flows
Am
When your heart beats
C
And when your ribs rise
G
Cos your lungs breathe
C
If the earth moves
Am
Where will you be
C
With what you love more
G
Where does that put me?

F C
When you leave
F C G
You...
Am
Will be fine
F C G
You...
C
Will be fine.
