Levi Robin - Lions Den

You can get an idea for how to play the intro by listening to the song, i wasn t sure how to show it here really so I put a youtube link for you to listen.

These are just the basic chords from the song, he adds some little touches in places that you can probably pick up on. If I made a mistake let me know I will fix it.

Capo on 7th fret

Intro: A D A D A

Verse 1:

A F#m
I find myself in a lions den
D A D
As a begger with an outstretched hand.
A F#m
I find myself in a western land
D
Asking for bread
A
From dishonest men

Chorus:

E F#m D
Do not fear the lions den
A E
You ll be brought up to your fathers land
A D A
And my cry is the longing of an ancient man
E F#m D
To return to his promised land
A
Going home again,
E A D A D A
Out of this lions den.

Verse 2:

A F#m
I find myself in a western trend
D
Here I am,
A D
Back again.
A F#m
Winding round this lonesome bend
D A
As a stranger in a foreign land.

Chorus:

E F#m D
Do not fear the lions den
A E
You ll be brought up to your fathers land
A D A
And my cry is the longing of an ancient man
E F#m D
To return to his promised land
A
Going home again,
E F#m
Out of this lions den.

Bridge: F#m D A E
A E D A

Chorus:

E F#m D
Do not fear the lions den
A E
You ll be brought up to your fathers land
A D A
And my cry is the longing of an ancient man
E F#m D
To return to his promised land
A
Going home again,
E A
Out of this lions den.

Outro: A D A E D A

The second part of the bridge isn't 100% correct but it does sound fine to play. Listen to the song to find the specific part.
