Misc Unsigned Bands

Song: Not Too Fussed

Band: Likely Lads

Album: Melrose Yard Demos

occasionally an G7 is played instead of an A but not with a high 7th interval note but a low one; but I don't know when and when not and it works well like this as well :)

Intro:

Am / C / G / D / D7

Verse:

Am

It's a right kerfuffle,

C

Oh what a mess we're in,

G

I'd say it's all or nothing,

D

I'd say there's no way I can win,

You're enigmatic,

as if nothing matters now,

We'll be happy laughing,

then you'll greet me with a frown,

I say think about this first, you'll regret it when you wake,

Because you say these things and I know you don't mean them,

But it's still so hard to take,

When it's good it's brilliant, but when it's bad it's hard to bare,

I remain resilient, and you know of course I care,

Pre-Chorus: same chords as Verse apart for the very end before the chorus

99 per cent of the time it's fine and you're always on my mind,

But when you've had a drink and you say silly things, I wonder why I try,

Am

I can't see this ending,

C

Unless it re-occurs again,

G

You should stop pretending,

D

D7

end on G
