Liz Ball - Life Death And Everything In Between
Misc Unsigned Bands

```
D                       A
```
Sweet and unexpected changes
```
                 Bm
```
Out of my own ashes
```
           G             D
```
A shadow of what I left behind
```
                             A
```
I won t regress through the ages
```
                 Bm
```
Cause somebody saved me
```
                   G
```
And now I m the same from the inside out.

```
Bm              G
```
It crossed a line
```
        D               A                    Bm
```
When I found myself thinking dangerous thoughts
```
              G
```
But I was fine
```
        D                 A                  Em
```
Cause nobody else could see what was going on

Life was waiting
```
G
```
I was hesitating
```
D                       A               Em
```
Self-analysing till I hated who I was

Trapped in my own head
```
G                         D
```
Thinking what if I was dead?
```
                   A
```
Who the hell had I become?

```
D                       A
```
Sweet and unexpected changes
```
                 Bm
```
Out of my own ashes
```
             G             D
```
A shadow of what I left behind
```
                             A
```

```
I won t regress through the ages
                  Bm
Cause somebody saved me
                    G
And now I m the same from the inside out.

Bm              G
That first smile
D                       A              Bm
Took me back to perfect simplicity
              G
A million miles
   D                    A                  Em
Away from where I can t believe I d been

Life was waiting
G
I was hesitating
D                           A          Em
Self-analysing till I hated who I was

Trapped in my own head
G                         D
Thinking what if I was dead?
                   A
Who the hell had I become?

D                         A
Sweet and unexpected changes
                  Bm
Out of my own ashes
              G              D
A shadow of what I left behind
                              A
I won t regress through the ages
                  Bm
Cause somebody saved me
                  G                  D
And now I m the same from the inside out.
```